

Seeing & Knowing 2016-2017 book list

If you order books on your own (rather than getting them through the UBC Bookstore), be sure to get the same editions by ensuring that the books have the same ISBN numbers as the ones below.

Note that some texts are online or will be provided through library reserves, so no book needs to be purchased for them. That is why there are things on the reading list that are not on the booklist, below.
